The image is a complex, layered composition. It features a dark, almost black background with a prominent, circular, yellowish-green pattern that resembles a stylized eye or a lens. Within this pattern, there are faint, overlapping images of a person's face and hands, suggesting a portrait or a self-portrait. The overall effect is one of depth and mystery, with various textures and colors blending together. The text 'LEA EILERS' is centered in a bold, pink font.

LEA EILERS

A painting of a cluttered room, possibly a bedroom or a study. The scene is dominated by warm, earthy tones of brown, orange, and red. In the foreground, a bed with a patterned coverlet is visible. To the left, there's a desk or table with various papers, some of which have text on them, including "LADOKV", "GUB", "MIL", "25", "MAY", "19". A lamp with a blue shade is on the desk. The background shows a wall with a patterned wallpaper and a window with a view of a landscape. The overall atmosphere is one of a lived-in, somewhat chaotic space.

A dark, textured sculpture, possibly made of wood or stone, is the central focus. It has a complex, organic form with several rectangular cutouts. From the sculpture, several thin, wavy blue lines extend outwards, some reaching towards the top and others towards the bottom. The background is a light-colored grid pattern, likely a window pane or a wall. The overall composition is abstract and modern.

MOA SKOG

The image features a dark, textured background with a prominent green vine-like pattern that winds across the upper and middle sections. The texture is reminiscent of rough stone or bark. In the lower portion, a white grid pattern is overlaid on the dark background. Centered in the middle of the image is a block of red text consisting of four lines of stylized, repetitive characters.
